

Topics: waterfront

Council bodies tussle over waterfront plan

Ewan McDonald | 17th Jan 2013 6:00 AM

Have your say »

View north from the Edgeware Village mall carpark, looking towards the BP service station. A laneway between the mall and Domino's Pizza is proposed to be redeveloped encouraging outdoor dining and night time "spill-out" space.

Stop me if you've read this before. Bernard Orsman reports:

"Work on creating tree-lined boulevards to connect Fanshawe St and Victoria Park with the waterfront at Wynyard Quarter will begin next month. But it is unclear when the project will be completed because the

STORY TOOLS

Tweet 0

+1 0 Like 0

RELATED ITEMS

- » » Boulevards for Auckland waterfront
- » » Tourists missing out on what makes Auckland special
- » » Brown takes knife to capital spend
- » » Officialdom take offence at Wynyard Quarter artwork
- » » An open waterfront? Here's the choice